

THE RESULTS

A BIPARTISAN POLL OF SPORTSMEN AND WOMEN ON TODAY'S MOST CRITICAL CONSERVATION ISSUES

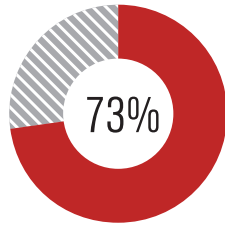

Major policy decisions are being made right now that will affect the future of hunting and fishing. To learn how America's 40 million hunters and anglers perceive these issues, the TRCP teamed up with Public Opinion Strategies in May 2017 to conduct a national public opinion poll. Here's what sportsmen told us:

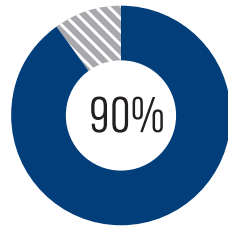

America's Public Lands

97%

AGREE THAT PROTECTING AND CONSERVING PUBLIC LANDS FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS IS IMPORTANT

OF TRUMP VOTERS VIEW AS VERY IMPORTANT

OF CLINTON VOTERS VIEW AS VERY IMPORTANT

NOT SO CONTROVERSIAL

THESE ISSUES ARE DEBATED AMONG DECISION MAKERS, BUT SPORTSMEN SUPPORT:

82%

the BLM's plans for conserving greater sage-grouse habitat

The Future of the Nation

NINETY-FIVE PERCENT

BELIEVE IT IS IMPORTANT TO MAINTAIN PUBLIC LANDS INFRASTRUCTURE LIKE ROADS, TRAILS, CAMPGROUNDS, AND HISTORIC SITES

70% OF REPUBLICANS & 71% OF DEMOCRATS SUPPORT AN INCREASE IN FUNDING FOR HIGHWAY CROSSINGS AND FENCES THAT HELP PREVENT VEHICLE COLLISIONS WITH WILDLIFE

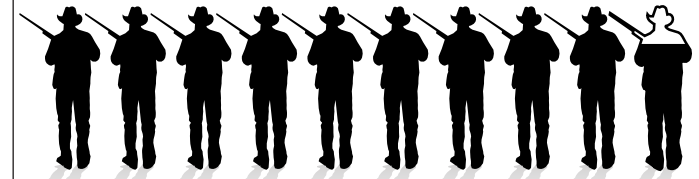

3 IN 4

providing financial incentives for farmers and ranchers to conserve land for habitat and clean water

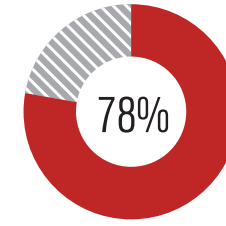

87%

no cuts to conservation programs in the federal budget

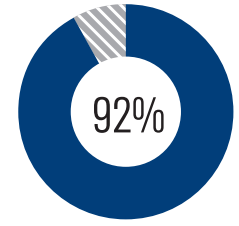

Clean Air And Water

97% AGREE THAT IT IS IMPORTANT TO ENSURE THAT POLLUTERS ARE HELD ACCOUNTABLE AND THAT PROTECTIONS ARE IN PLACE TO PREVENT TOXIC SPILLS

OF TRUMP VOTERS VIEW AS VERY IMPORTANT

OF CLINTON VOTERS VIEW AS VERY IMPORTANT

4 IN 5

Clean Water Act protections for smaller headwater streams and wetlands

79%

using a portion of off-shore oil & gas drilling fees for conservation and opening access to outdoor recreation