

Buffalo RMP (2015). A 729 acre parcel of BLM land identified for disposal along the eastern edge of the Bighorn National Forest. BLM lands identified for Category 3 potential disposal that are also contiguous with the national forest boundary are common in the Buffalo Field Office. This particular tract contains the headwaters of the East Fork of the Little Tongue River, and a trail passes through the center of the parcel.

